

Running a Successful Construction Company

Table of Contents

PART ONE: GETTING READY.....4

- 1. A Builder's Career.....5
 - What It Takes.....5
 - Opportunities and Challenges..12
 - Making a Plan.....17

- 2. A Builder's Tools.....23
 - Office and Shop.....23
 - Computers and Construction...30
 - Policy Statement.....36
 - Operating Capital.....41
 - Insurance.....45

- 3. A Builder's Numbers.....51
 - Knowing Your Numbers.....51
 - Starting with a Shoebox.....60
 - Moving Up to a One-Write
System.....69
 - Keeping Job Cost Records.....77
 - Adding Payroll.....83
 - Leaping to a Computer
Program.....87
 - Going Deeper into Your
Numbers.....95

PART TWO: GETTING THE RIGHT JOBS.....100

- 4. Entering the Marketplace.....101
 - Marketing.....101
 - Connecting with Design
Professionals.....110
 - Evaluating Projects.....115
 - Competitive Bidding.....121
 - Design/Build.....127
 - Cost Planning.....133

- 5. Estimating and Bidding.....142
 - Nailing Your Numbers.....142
 - Gathering Information.....152

- Calculating Direct Costs.....158
- Figuring Overhead.....163
- Figuring Profit.....169
- Alternative Methods.....172

- 6. Construction Contracts.....177
 - Why and Which One.....177
 - The Agreement.....183
 - The Conditions.....189
 - Two Critical Conditions:
Change Orders and Dispute
Resolution.....193
 - Subcontracts.....197

PART THREE: GETTING THE JOBS DONE RIGHT.....200

- 7. Labor, Materials, and Subcontractors.....201
 - Hiring and Firing.....201
 - Crew.....210
 - Project Leads and
Delegation.....215
 - Pay.....221
 - Subcontractors and
Suppliers.....228

- 8. Project Management.....235
 - Safety First.....235
 - Job Setup.....238
 - Running Projects.....244
 - Working with Clients.....252

- Resources.....258
- Glossary.....260
- Index.....263